VOLUME CVIII.--NO. 36. ALEXANDRIA, VA., MONDAY EVENING, FEBRUARY 11, 1907. PRICE 2 CENTS.

DO YOU KNOW

That Dr. Pierce's Favorite Prescription is the only medicine sold through druggists for woman's weaknesses and peculiar ailments that does not contain large quantities of alcohol? It is also the only medicine, especially prepared for the cure of the delicate diseases peculiar to women, the maker of which is not afraid to take his patients into his full confidence, by printing upon each bottle wrapper all the ingredients entering into the medicine. Ask your druggist if this is not true.

"Favorite Prescription," too, is the only medicine for women, all the ingredients of which have the unqualified endorsement of the leading medical writers of the several schools of practice, recommending them for the cure of the diseases for which the "Prescription" is advised. Write to Dr. R. V. Pierce, Buffalo, N. Y., for a free booklet, and read the numerous extracts from standard medical authorities praising the several ingredients of which Dr. Pierce's medicines are made, and don't forget that no other medicines put up for sale through druggists for domestic use can show any such professional endorsement. This, of itself, is of far more weight and importance than any amount of so-called "testimonials" so conspicuously flaunted before the public, in favor of the alcoholic compounds.

The "Favorite Prescription" cures all woman's peculiar weaknesses and derangements, thus banishing the periodical headaches, backaches, bearing-down distress, tenderness and dragging-down sensations in lower abdomen, accompanied by weakening and disagreeable catarrhal, pelvic drains and kindred symptoms.

Dr. Pierce and his staff of skilled specialists may be consulted free by addressing as above. All correspondence is treated as sacredly confidential. By consulting in this way the disagreeable questionings and personal "examinations" are avoided.

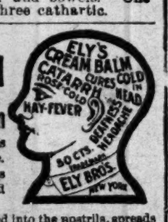

The People's Common Sense Medical Adviser contains some very interesting and valuable chapters on the diseases peculiar to women. It contains over one thousand pages. It is sent post paid, on receipt of sufficient in one-cent stamps to pay cost of mailing only, or 21 cents for a copy in flexible paper covers, or 31 cents for a cloth-bound copy. Address Dr. R. V. Pierce as above.

Dr. Pierce's Pellets regulate and invigorate stomach, liver and bowels. One a laxative, two or three cathartic.

Nasal CATARRH

In all its stages.

Ely's Cream Balm

cleanses, soothes and heals the diseased membrane. It cures catarrh and drives away a cold in the head quickly.

Cream Balm is placed into the nostrils, spreads over the membrane and is absorbed. Relief is immediate and a cure follows. It is not drying—does not produce sneezing. Large Size, 50 cents at Druggists or by mail; Trial Size, 10 cents.

KEEP YOUR HEAD UNCOVERED.

The Constant Wearing of a Hat Propogates Dandruff Germs.

There are many men who wear their hats practically all the time when awake, and are blessed with a heavy shock of hair; yet if the scalps of these same men once became infested with dandruff germs, the parasites would multiply all the quicker for lack of air. Baldness would ensue as the final result. Newbro's Herpicide kills these germs and stimulates unhealthy hair to abundant growth. Herpicide is a pleasant hair dressing as well as a dandruff cure and contains not an atom of injurious substance. Sold by leading druggists. Send 10c. in stamps for sample to The Herpicide Co., Detroit, Mich.

Two sizes—50 cents and $1.00.

Constipation

Baked sweet apples, with some people, bring prompt relief for Constipation. With others, coarse all-wheat bread will have the same effect. Nature undoubtedly has a vegetable remedy to relieve every ailment known to man, if physicians can but find Nature's way to health. And this is strikingly true with regard to Constipation.

The bark of a certain tree in California—Cascara Sagrada—offers a most excellent aid to this end. But, combined with Egyptian Senna, Slippery Elm Bark, Solid Extract of Prunes, etc., this same Cascara bark is given its greatest possible power to correct constipation. A toothsome Candy Tablet, called Lax-ets, is now made at the Dr. Shoop Laboratories, from this ingenuous and most effective prescription. Its effect on Constipation, Biliousness, Sour Stomach, Bad Breath, Sallow Complexion, etc., is indeed prompt and satisfying.

No griping, no unpleasant after effects are experienced, and Lax-ets are put up in beautiful lithographed metal boxes at 5 cents and 25 cents per box.

For something new, nice, economical and effective, try a box of

The Church Troubles in France.

The Paris Temps yesterday printed what it declares to be the true history of the address of the French Episcopate proposing model contracts for churches. According to this account, which bears internal evidence of being authentic, the ultramontanes, who are in the majority in the episcopate, favored the maintenance of the status quo, but agreed to submit to the Vatican the question of contracts which the moderates proposed, in the belief that it would not be acceptable there.

Monsignor Dadole, archbishop of Dijon, and Bishop Touchet took the minutes to Rome and Cardinal Merry del Val, papal secretary of State, told them the Pope was willing to accept the principle of the contracts if absolute soldiarity was shown, but that this decision must come ostensibly from the episcopate, as he could not publicly intervene.

Thereupon, the Temps says, the address was drawn up and submitted to the Pope, who, with his own hand, supplemented the clause specifying that the contract must be accepted everywhere, "or we do not wish it anywhere."

The document, the paper says, was then taken to Paris and issued in the name of the entire episcopate, although many of the bishops never saw it until it was published.

Does Coffee disagree with you? Probably it does! Then try Dr. Shoop's Health Coffee. "Health Coffee" is a clever combination of parched cereals and nuts. Not a grain of real Coffee, remember, in Dr. Shoop's Health Coffee, yet its flavor and taste matches closely old Java and Mocha Coffee. If your stomach, heart, or kidneys can't stand Coffee drinking, try Health Coffee. It is wholesome, nourishing, and satisfying. If safe even for the youngest child. Sold by E. S. Leadbeater & Sons, druggists.

Death of "Bull Run" Russell.

A dispatch from London announces the death of Sir William Howard Russell, editor of the Army and Navy Gazette. He was 86 years old. He was a famous war correspondent.

Dr. Russell was generally known in this country as Bull Run Russell in consequence of the criticisms he received incidental to his retreat from the battlefield of Bull Run. He was born in 1820 in Ireland and was educated at Trinity College. In early manhood he removed to London, and just before the outbreak of the Crimean war he obtained a position on the London Times. He became one of the most famous war correspondents of his day. Dr. Russell was knighted in 1895. He was also an officer of the Legion of Honor. His books include "Letters from the Crimea," "British Expedition to the Crimea," "Diary in India," "Diary—North and South," "Diary in the Last Great War," "Hesperothen," "Adventures of Dr. Brady," "A Retrospect of the Crimea," and "Todleben's Sebastopol."

The Alaska Packers Association have liberated from their Hatcheries in Alaska, up to 1906, over three hundred and fifty-one millions (351,000,000) young salmon. Their Fortmann hatchery is the largest in the world.

Lives on Water.

For thirty-four days Dr. J. B. Rullieon, of Toledo, Ohio, has fasted. He has allowed nothing to pass his lips except air and water, and appears to be healthy and strong. Water as a food has been taken in teaspoonful doses every three or five days. Dr. Rullison, who is 62 years old, began his fast on the eve of January 5. Prior to that time he lived on the juices of fruit alone. He wears no underclothing and takes long walks barefooted in the snow. At times he removes all his clothing and lies in the snow for long periods. "What is the use of eating," said the doctor, "when happiness, strength and power can be had without food? A person at the age of 15 has taken enough food to supply the body for 100 years. The greatest drunkenness in the world is food drunkenness." The doctor sleeps only one hour out of the twenty-four Trouble in Haiti.

A dispatch from Port-au-Prince, Haiti, says that the relations between the governments of Haiti and Germany are strained, owing to the refusal of the German bankers, Herman & Co., by direction of the court at Port-au-Prince, to return to the Haitian government large sums of money alleged to have been obtained fraudulently.

Among the alleged transactions of Hermann & Co. with the Haitian government was one which is said to have proved favorable to the government. This was concluded by the Haitian minister of finance, the German Legation, and Hermann & Co.

The German minister demanded that this transaction, as well as others, be annulled, but the Haitian government, in terms that the German minister deemed offensive, refused to acquiesce. The German minister at the same time demanded the withdrawal of the phrase objected to. This also was refused. Fears are entertained of grave complications ensuing.

The Official Monitor recently published notice of the expulsion of Mr. Mansour, an American citizen, but Mr. Furniss, the American minister, believing the call for the man's expulsion unjustified, asked for the withdrawal of the order. This, however, was refused, and Mansour has left for New York. The seal of the American Legation has been placed on his shop

Complies with all requirements of the National Pure Food Law, Guarantee No. 2041, filed at Washington.

"Fresh Roasted Coffee?—bah! Mother didn't use fresh roasted coffee, she had Arbuckles.'

The way to get a good cup of coffee that tastes like Coffee with all the delicious flavor and aroma intact, is to buy a package of the old original Arbuckles' ARIOSA Coffee, and grind it as you want to use it, first warming it a little to develop the flavor and make the grinding easy. Coffee loses its identity as Coffee after being ground or exposed to the air and is easily contaminated by handling.

Arbuckles' was the first roasted packaged coffee.

The pores of each coffee berry are sealed after roasting with fresh eggs and granulated sugar to hold the goodness in and make the coffee settle clear and quickly; an actual application by machinery, of "Mother's" methods—as patented by this firm.

Sold only in packages, sealed for the consumer's protection, containing one pound full weight. Sales for 37 years exceed the combined sales of all the other packaged coffees. The best coffee for you to drink, and saves your money besides.

Same old firm, same old coffee. If your dealer won't supply, write to

"The most popular remedy in Otsego county, and the best friend of my family," writes Wm. M. Dietz, editor and publisher of the Otsego Journal, Gilbertsville, N. Y., "is Dr. King's New Discovery. It has proved to be an infallible cure for coughs and colds, making short work of the worst of them. We always keep a bottle in the house. I believe it to be the most valuable prescription known for Lung and Throat diseases." Guaranteed to never disappoint the taker, by E. S. Leadbeater & Sons, druggists. Price 50c and $1. Victim of a Jealous Woman.

Dr. Everett H. Merwin, 38 years old, who had spent several years on British steamships as a surgeon, and Miss Maud Slater, aged 23 years, a patient of the doctors were found dead in Merwin's office in Kansas, City, Mo., Saturday, and all available evidence points to the theory that the girl shot and killed the physician and then committed suicide as the result of insane jealousy. Each had been shot through the head, and a pistol was found near the extended right hand of the girl.

The doors of the office were locked, and neighboring tenants of the building who heard the sound of the shots in Dr. Merwin's office were obliged to force an entrance to his apartments. The aged parents of the girl said that she had announced before she left home Saturday she intended to go to the doctor's office for treatment.

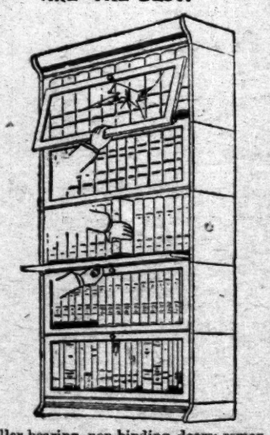

It is stated that Dr. Merwin had expressed annoyance because Miss Slater recently wrote him letters, telephoned to him and in other ways thrust her attentions upon him. He even charged that through a feeling of jealousy Miss Slater had published an announcement of his engagement to another woman.

The announcement was most embarrassing to Dr. Merwin and the young woman concerned, and both promptly declared it to be false and said they were not responsible for the publication.

Dr. Merwin was treasurer of a Kansas City homeopathic college and had an extensive practice. He studied medicine and surgery in London, and in 1898 became the surgeon on the British steamship Sobo, which cruised around the South African coast. Later he served in the same capacity on the British ship Cabenda. He had spent most of his life in Kansas City, where his parents live.

Alexandria Gazette
SIC SEMPER TYRANNIS
AND VIRGINIA ADVERTISER

MONDAY EVENING, FEB. 11, 1907.

FORTY-FIVE years ago last night (February 10, 1862,) the Gazette building, with entire contents, was ruthlessly burned by federal soldiers who then occupied and infested the city and surrounding country. The day before (Sunday) four army officers, in full uniform, attended St. Paul's Church in the morning and during the services, in stentorian tones, demanded that the prayer for the President of the United States be read. Other soldiers were scattered through the church. Rev. J. Kinzey Stewart, who was conducting the services, ignored the demand, and proceded with the prayers. The officers, thereupon, left their seats, rushed to the chancel and seizing the clergyman, while he was yet upon his knees, dragged him down the centre aisle, and turning him over to a guard marched him to the provost marshal's office.

The occurrence caused a wild scene in the church and there were hand to hand conflicts between some members of the congregation and the soldiers, a lady striking one of the latter, who had hold of Mr. Stewart, full in the face with a prayer book. In the meantime, Rev. J. T. Leftwich had been similarly dragged from his pulpit in the Second Presbyterian Church and also marched off to the provost marshal's office. The disgraceful proceedings on the part of the soldiery caused intense excitement and much indignation throughout the city. The next evening the Gazette, bold as it always has been and always will be in maintaining the right, criticised the dastardly conduct of the officers and soldiers in a true version of the outrageous affair which it published. That night men of the Eighth Illinois Cavalry, the Eighty-eighth Pennsylvania Infantry and other soldiers set fire to the building. When the firemen and engines arrived on the scene the soldiers with drawn sabres and bayonetted muskets prevented any attempt being made to extinguish the flames, cutting the hose and driving off those who would have rendered assistance. The building, with the library, presses, engine, boiler, type, bookbindery, stock of paper, &c., was entirely destroyed and what represented the life work of three generations went up in smoke. Truly war is h——l.

STRENUOUS efforts, it is said, are being made to prevent a special session of the Senate after March 4. Senator Aldrich has taken charge of this movement and is exerting all possible pressure on Senator Bacon to withdraw his opposition to the Santo Domingo treaty and permit its ratification at this session. A poll of the Senate, it is claimed, shows there are more than a sufficient number of votes now to approve the treaty. Senator Aldrich and his associates say they do not believe that President Roosevelt can negotiate a new treaty with Japan and send it to the Senate before March 4, or for a long period after that date, and, as there is no opposition to a commercial treaty with Germany, Senator Aldrich's faction do not consider it worth while to call a special session for its discussion.

MRS. MINNIE PFARRER, of St. Louis, who has been granted a divorce from Georgia C. Pfarrer by Circuit Judge Kinzy, testified that her husband, during the last year that they lived together, never went to bed at night without taking a butcher knife, a baseball bat or a poker with him. She also declared that her husband carefully preserved newspaper accounts of men killing their wives and families and pasted these together. She lived in constant fear, she said, that he would kill her and the children. The woman was granted a divorce, the custody of the children and $2,500 alimony.

ROBERT H. GARDINER, of Gardiner, Me., says he has discovered a document that another princess maiden besides Pocahontas had protected Captain John Smith from being killed by Indians. Next there will be two John Smiths.

IF TWO more justices can be induced to retire, the appointees of Mr. Roosevelt will constitute a majority of the United States Supreme Court. Mr. Roosevelt is said to be working for that end and will probably succeed.

From Washington.

[Correspondence of the Alexandria Gazette.]

Washington, Feb. 11.

While officials of the American government may be interested in the nature of the report of Governor Swettenham, of Jamaica, which, it is reported from London, may be made public with sensational results in parliament this week, it is declared by officials of both the State and Navy Departments that the Kingston incident, as affecting Rear Admiral Davis as representing the American navy, is closed once and for all, unless, perhaps, the British government, since the receipt of Governor Swettenham's detailed report, might see fit to re-open it. It was stated today by Rear Admiral Converse, chief of the Bureau of Navigation, of the Navy Department, who was acting secretary, in the absence of Secretary Metcalf at Annapolis and Assistant Secretary Nowberry at New Orleans, that the detailed report to Rear Admiral Davis, which came by mail, was satisfactory to the department, and no matter what statements may be contained in Governor Swettenham's report, it is not likely that Admiral Davis shall be called upon for an answer or for further explanations. "Of course, Admiral Davis, himself, may see fit to reply to statements of the governor of Jamaica, but he will not likely be called upon to do so by the department, unless the British government, changing its view of the incident by the governor's report, should take up the question again with the State Department. Such action as this on the part of the British government is not anticipated, and, in the belief of both state and navy officials, the incident will not be re-opened, even if Governor Swettenham's report differs widely from that of Rear Admiral Davis and his statements are sensational, as forecasted in London dispatches.

When the attention of Secretary of War Taft was today called to the statement made in a New York paper that it had been definitely determined to abandon the site for the Gatun dam on the Panama canal which would also require the abandonment of the high level lock plan for the canal, he said: "There is no more foundation for that statement than there would be for one to the effect that I was going to the moon." "Can I say that you are entirely satisfied with the foundations for the dam at that point." "You can say," replied the Secretary, "That all the information we are receiving simply tends to confirm our original judgment in selecting the site at Gatun for the big dam and in determining upon the location there of the flight of three locks necessary to make a high level canal."

Senator Hale today presented and had printed as a Senate document some interesting figures of the sizes of big battleships in course of construction by the powers as compared with the latest addition to the United States navy. He showed that Russia is building four battleships of 21,000 tons; Japan one of 19,800 and one of 19,200 tons; Germany four of 18,000 tons; France six of 18,350 tons with a speed of 19 knots each. England's Dreadnought is of 17,900 tons burthen but she has also projected three others of 18,400 tons each with a speed of 21 knots. The last battleship to be added to the United States navy was the South Carolina which has only 16,000 tons and a speed of 18¼ knots.

The President has asked Postmaster General Cortelyou to take steps to bar from the mails newspaper printing the full details of the Thaw trial, if he may do so under the law. The following official statement on the subject was issued at the White House today: "The President has communicated with Postmaster General Cortelyou to learn whether it is feasible to bar from the mails the papers that give the full disgusting particulars of the Thaw case. He does not know whether it is feasible, but if it is he wishes it done."

Section 497 of the postal law says "Every obscene, lewd, or lascivious book, pamphlet, picture, paper, letter, writing, print, or other publication of an indecent character" is unmailable.

The Bryan democratic club was organized at a meeting held yesterday afternoon. The members of the club are well known business men who do not think that the prosperous times now being enjoyed would in the slightest degree be affected by the election of their standard bearer to the presidency.

President Roosevelt today received an envelope from Columbus, Ohio, containing $150. The money was in two bills, a one hundred and a fifty and the sender who did not reveal his identity asked that it be placed to the account of "conscience."

Secretary of the Treasury Shaw today announced that he would buy $25,000,000 worth of the four per cent bonds at 101½. The Secretary's order goes into effect at once. It is stated that the price of 101½ applies only to those bonds upon which payment of the April interest has not been anticipated. Where the interest has been paid the price will be 100½.

Mingo Sanders, first sergeant of Company B., 25th. Infantry was before the Senate military committee when the inquiry into the Brownsville incident was resumed today. He said that at Brownsville his quarters were about five hundred yards outside the military reservation, he being a married man. He was awakened by the shooting and it was while he was running to his company's quarters that the bullets came over his head.

By direction of the President the Secretary of the Interior has appointed W. Scott Smith, at present private Secretary to the secretary of the Interior, as superintendant of the Hot Springs reservation, Arkansas, to succeed Martin E. Fisele, resigned.

The United States government has decided to take steps to preserve peace between Nicaragua and Honduras. Telegrams were sent today by the State Department to the diplomatic representatives of this government in other Central American States asking them to cooperate with the United States in the endeavor to prevent a war that would prove damaging to the interests of all.

Condemns White.

Providence, R. I., Feb. 11.—In a sermon delivered here the Rev. C. M. Meldon said: "I don't know whether Thaw will have to die for his act or not, but he did a good thing when he put Stanford White out of the way. Conscience is the voice of God within us, the moral sense of man to do right as he understands it. Another element of strong moral character is love, but not of such men as Stanford White, who lie in wait for the young and innocent. Man's character is made stronger by true love."

News of the Day.

William Randolph Hearst has issued a signed statement urging the adoption of his bill to limit the amount of money to be spent in national elections.

The House yesterday listened to eulogies on Representatives Hoar, of Massachusetts, and Rufus E. Lester, of Georgia, both of whom died last summer.

Mr. Samuel Hecht, jr., aged 76 years, the founder of all the Hecht enterprise in Baltimore New York and Washington, died at his residence, in Baltimore Saturday evening. Death was due to a complication of diseases.

President Roosevelt and the authorities of San Francisco on Saturday evening it is said reached the mutual understanding that the California-Japanese, school question can be adjusted without danger of any serious difficulty with Japan. The details of the adjustment are not agreed upon.

Representative Hal D. Flood, of Virginia, has introduced a most unique bill in the House. His plan is to have the Secretary of the Treasury lay aside $25,000,000 out of the surplus on hand at the end of each fiscal year. This amount would be apportioned out among all the States to be used for road improvements.

The army appropriation bill was under discussion in the Senate Saturday. An interesting discussion relative to the American occupancy of Cuba was precipitated. An amendment proposed to the bill by the committee was attacked on the ground that it was an entering wedge to break the effect of the rate law of the last session. After eulogies on the life and character of the late Representative Marsh, of Illinois, the Senate adjourned.

Death of State Senator McCune.

Former State Senator James G. McCune, lawyer, politican and school teacher, died shortly, before midnight Saturday night, at Belleview Farm, the home of his father, Dr. Samuel McCune, near Middletown, Frederick county. Mr. McCune was 46 years of age. He was ill only for a day or two and his death is attributed to rheumatism of the heart.

For a country lawyer, Mr. McCune had an eventful life. Since a young man he had been active in republican politics, and 10 years ago, during a factional fight among the democrats, he was elected to the Virginia State Senate. There he became the father and patron of the famous "anti-kissing" bill, which brought him fame all over the United States. The measure was designed to prevent young men from flirting with schoolgirls, but its provisions were so drastic that, if enforced, kissing among young men and women would have been abolished in this State. The bill became a law, but was soon repealed.

Last spring Mr. McCune figured in a sensational elopement, when, pursued by the irate brothers of the bride, he eloped from Middletown with Miss Mary Parker, the pretty daughter of Constable J. A. Parker. The couple were married at Hagerstown, Md., having outwitted the angry brothers, who were bent on breaking up the match. Several months later the wife instituted suit for divorce, on the grounds of desertion and nonsupport, and several weeks ago a decree was entered by the court, which dissolved the marriage. Miss Parker was a pupil at a school taught by Mr. McCune.

The Approach of Lent.

February 13 (day after tomorrow) will be Ash Wednesday and the first day of Lent—a season of 40 days of fasting, abstinence, almsgiving and seclusion from the world—observed in many churches and by many sects, but especially by members of the Roman Catholic and Protestant Episcopal Churches.

According to the rules of the Catholic Church all the faithful over 21, years not otherwise exempt by dispensation, are bound to observe the fast of Lent, which permits only one meal a day, except on Sundays, while a small collation is permitted in the evening. The use of flesh meat is permitted at all meals on Sundays and once a day on Mondays, Tuesdays, Thursdays and Saturdays, with the exception of the second and last Saturdays of Lent. Special provisions are also made for invalids, nursing women and workingmen and their families.

The paschal time extends from the first Sunday of Lent till Trinity Sunday, during which time all Catholics who have attained the proper age are bound to receive worthily the communion.

Holy Week, the final week in Lent, is one of the most solemn and important occasions in the ecclesiastical year. It is during that period that Maundy, Thursday, Good Friday and Holy Saturday are celebrated.

On Holy Saturday, the final day in Lent, newly made fire is consecrated, with which the paschal candles are lighted, symbolic of Christ, the newly arisen light of the world.

The day following Holy Saturday is Easter Sunday.

Tillman on Thaw.

Senator Tillman, of South Carolina, in an interview at York, Pa., Saturday, when asked what would be the outcome of the Thaw trial if it occurred in South Carolina, said:

"I can hardly conceive of such a case as Thaw being on trial in the South, but if that girl's story is true, she was a victim, and I think a South Carolina jury would drag in the unwritten law and acquit Thaw on what might be called general principles. From what I have read I don't think Thaw was or is crazy. If I were those lawyers, I wouldn't go much on the crazy idea; better hang to the unwritten law, which will have more effect on a jury."

Catholics in Virginia,

Advance sheets of the Official Catholic Directory, published by the M. H. Wiltzius Co., Milwaukee, gave the following statistics regarding the Richmond diocese: Population (Catholic), about 31,000; bishops, 1; clergy, 54; churches, 68; colleges and academies, 8; parishes, with schools, 20; children attending, 5,425; orphan asylums, 4; orphans, 250; charitable institutions, 10.

Fire on Historic Spot.

New York, Feb 9.—In the site where once stood the Mansion of the first President of the United States two firemen fought a stubborn blaze today. The fire was in Jas. S. Weinrs's paper warehouse, which occupies an abutement of the Brooklyn Bridge at Dover and Cherry streets. The abutement stands on the spot where stood the house occupied by Geo. Washington, from April, 1789, to February, 1790.

The Georgetown Universary basketball term defeated Virginia, Saturday night, before one of the largest gatherings that has ever witnessed a basketball contest, in Washington Light Infantry Armory on 15th street near Pennsylvania avenue Washington, by a score of 22 to 11.

A friendly suit in chancery has been filed in Loudoun by Mr. Edward Nichols, attorney for A. M. Chichester, jr., executor, to construe the will of his deceased wife, who was Miss Mathilde de Benneville of Philadelphia. The same attorney has also filed suit to construe the will of the late Col. R. Hunter Dulany.

The Students' Conference of the Virginia Young Men's Christian Associations, which assembled in Madison Hall, at the University of Virginia, on Friday night, came to a close last night with a big meeting in Cabell Hall, united in by practically all of the Christian people of the community, the churches of Charlottesville being closed.

A party of engineers and mining experts were in Winchester Friday, en route to the Blue Ridge mountains in Clarke and Warren countries, to make investigations for the Davis Coal to Coke Company of Elkins, W. Va., which, it was stated, contemplates extending its field of operations to the valley of Virginia as there are said to be excellent reasons for believing that untold wealth in minerals lies under the surface in the Blue Ridge.

THE THAW CASE.

That the shocking story that Evelyn Nesbit Thaw told of her ruin by Stanford White was true, and also that Harry Thaw believed that he had exhausted the resources of the law in his endeavor to secure the punishment of White before he took the law into his own hands and slew the architect—these were the great features of a declaration made Saturday by Anthony Comstock, head of the Anti-vice Society.

Mr. Comstock, who is ill with pneumonia at Summit, N. J., gave out an authorized interview, which was published and which becomes one of the most important contributions to the history of the Thaw case. He declared that Thaw had come to him in 1905 and told him White was luring young girls to their ruin and had begged him to put a stop to it. To show the sincerity of his purpose, Thaw sent a large check to Comstock. The latter put detectives on the case and found that the story was true. He learned of a number of instances, in one case the victim being but 15 years old, in which White had enticed innocent girls into his den in the Madison Square Garden tower. Comstock, however, was unable to get such proof as would serve in a court of law.

Another remarkable development in the Thaw case Saturday was the leaking out of the contents of the will of Harry K Thaw, which will the defense tried in vain to get into evidence on Friday. Its admission was defeated on the ground that it was not sufficiently identified. This is an obstacle that will, without doubt, be speedily removed, and the will will probably be admitted as an exhibit in the case today.

Through the amazing testimony of Evelyn Thaw, through the will of the defendant and through the testimony that may be given by Anthony Comstock if he recovers from his illness in time to testify, it is now pretty well apparent that the defense will try to create in the minds of the jury the impression that Harry K. Thaw, however erratic, was driven in his course against Stanford White by an heroic impulse—an impulse that was akin to mania, if not actual insanity, but that was heroic and chivalric just the same.

Miners Arming.

By far the most alarming situation that has ever arisen in the coal region in Pennsylvania has been brought to light at Scranton with the discovery that 40 military companies of union miners have been organized and are in a position to combat with the soldiery of the state and national government. They are armed with 45-caliber Springfield rifles, and several of them are provided with uniforms of the same pattern and color as those worn by infantry in the regular army. The coal operators say that no strike is in sight, and that they have no fear of one this year, but there is always anxiety on this score on the part of the mineworkers and the operators, and the latter are now confronted by a situation such as they have never faced before. A strike would precipitate a civil war, with organized labor, uniformed and armed, arrayed against the military arm of the Keystone State. These facts are borne out in the report made to the War Department by Capt. Henry H. Whitney, of the Coast Artillery, who was one of the regular army inspectors sent into Pennsylvania last year by Secretary Taft to inspect the National Guard organizations there. Arming of men without the Governor's permission is contrary to the law of Pennsylvania, but many of the foreign organizations are chartered by the courts, and other mineworkers are arraying themselves under the guise of social organizations. They meet and drill without arms, and do not violate any State regulations, but their purpose is evidently to oppose the small state constabulary and the National Guard regiments in case of strikes or other labor troubles. Most of the mines shut down on Monday because of the snow causing a scarcity of cars on the railroads, and nearly every society of the miners had a meeting and a drill.

The Thaw Trial.

New York, Feb. 11.—Every effort of Harry K. Thaw's attorneys is being bent today on an effort to have admitted in evidence the will made by the young millionaire on the eve of his marriage to Evelyn Nesbit in April 1905.

The first announcement of the day was an edict from the bench, that with the exception of the six actively engaged newspaper women, no members of the gentler sex was to be permitted in the court room during the remainder of the Thaw trial. The order caused a buzz of indignation among a regiment of cackling scandal mongers and sensation seekers who were drawn out by the beautiful spring weather and to lay siege to the outer doors of the court building. Their protests were in vain, however, and when court was called to order the only women present were the six designated.

Thaw was brought into court at 10:30 looking fresh and in good spirits, but there was a flash of disappointment on his face, as he noted that no members of his family were in court.

Judge Delmas accompanied Mrs. Harry Kendall Thaw into court, but left her in the clerk's office, where she remained to greet her husband when he was brought into the prisoner's pen.

J. D. Lyons, vice president of the Union National Bank, of Pittsburg, was the first witness called by the defense to identify the will of Harry K. Thaw on which today's fight seems to centre.

District Attorney Jerome immediately objected to Mr. Lyons as a witness. His contention was the same as that raised last week, when the will was temporarily barred out on the ground that no evidence had been offered to lay the foundation of proof of Thaw's insanity.

Jerome insisted on some further proof of Harry Kendall Thaw's weak-mindedness which brought from Judge Delmas the first word upholding Dr. Wiley, the victim of Jerome's vivisection as an expert.

In his answer Judge Delmas declared that while the defense has an abundance of expert testimony to introduce, proving that Thaw was insane at the time that he shot Stanford White, it is the purpose of the defense to introduce the facts in the case, first, enumerate Thaw's eccentricities and then clinch the case by introduction of the testimony of the experts at the close.

After a long wrangle between Jerome and Delmas, following an objection by the former to the testimony, of Mr. Lyons, on the ground that the defense had not yet established a basis for the insanity plea, the prosecutor backed down and Lyons was allowed to testify to having received from Harry Kendall Thaw, prior to April 1906, the will over which the fight is being made. Mr. Lyons declared that the envelope containing the will was unbroken during the time it was in his possession and up to the time he surrendered it the latter part of November 1906. Attorney Gleason, for the defense, then took the stand, and testified that the envelope came into his possession with the seal unbroken on December 11, 1906.

At this point Attorney Delmas again offered the will in evidence, but Jerome's objection on the ground of the passing of the will from Lyons to Gleason without being opened was sustained and the will was temporarily laid aside.

Evelyn Nesbit was then recalled to the stand.

Instantly the court room which had been in a drowsy state, became surcharged with excitement.

Delmas than asked the district attorney to produce the note which Mrs. Harry Kendall Thaw wrote to her husband at the Cafe Martin on the night of the tragedy.

Several minutes elapsed before this bit of evidence could be produced and during the interim Evelyn was the target of every pair of eyes in the room.

After the note had been duly identified Delmas asked Evelyn if she could identify it.

"I can," was the answer.

"Did you write it?"

"Yes."

Delmas then read the note to the court. It said:

"The 'B.' was here a moment ago, but went out again."

To whom did that 'B' refer?"

"To Stanford White."

"Now, I will ask you" said Mr. Delmas, in a very gentle tone as he noticed the frightened tones of the voice of the witness, "if you ever heard Mr. Thaw speak of any threat made against his life by Stanford White."

Jerome objected and Justice Fitzgerald sustained the objection and the question was re-stated.

Jerome objected on the ground that the question did not bear on the insanity defense, but had to do with the plea of self-defense which had not as yet been established by Thaw's attorney.

The objection to Delmas' question was sustained.

"You have already referred to Christmas eve of 1903. Will you state if on that evening, or any evening subsequent, Mr. Thaw made any statement to you of any malefaction set on him by Mr. White."

The question was objected to and ruled out.

"Did you ever see a pistol in Mr. Thaw's possession?"

"Yes."

"When did you first see it?"

"I don't exactly remember, but it was in New York some time after Christmas eve, 1903."

"Did you ever say anything to Mr. Thaw about a visit you had made to Miss May McKenzie, at a hospital, when she was ill, and at which Mr. White was present?" asked Delmas.

"Yes," answered Mrs. Thaw.

Jerome again launched into a spirited contest with Delmas on the question of whether the line of evidence—which was along self defense lines—was admissible at a time when the defense was standing on an insanity plea.

Jerome's objection to the question and answer was then ruled out.

"Do you remember being at the theatre in 1904, with your husband and a woman friend named Mrs. Gaines?"

"I do."

"Do you remember seeing Stanford White?"

"I do."

"Do you remember the effect of seeing Mr. White had on your husband?"

The question was ruled out.

The question as to the statement Mrs. Thaw had made to Harry Thaw, and when he and the young woman were returning from Europe in 1904, relating to relations of Stanford White with some young women, was ruled out. The question as to what Mrs. Thaw had told her husband, in Paris in 1903, as to White's treatment of another girl, met the same fate.

"When was it that Mr. Thaw made the proposal of marriage to you, which you accepted?"

"About April 1905," answered Mrs. Thaw blushing and hanging her head, as a faint smile played about the corners of her mouth.

An attempt by Delmas to have her repeat her husband's successful proposal, was ruled out.

Court adjourned at 12:20 on the request of Attorney Delmas, in order that he might have time to prepare some of his expert testimony for lack of which most of his questions to witnesses this morning were ruled out.

Thaw's attorneys are in conference presumably concerning a new line of testimony, a change in programme having been forced on them by the ruling out of much of their testimony this morning on technical objections by the prosecution. It is said Delmas will put his insanity experts on the stand this afternoon.

The Explosion at Woolwich.

London, Feb. 11.—Developments today show that the damage caused by the explosion in the chemical research department of the Woolwich arsenal early this morning was much greater than at first supposed. It is impossible to ascertain the cause of the disaster. Houses for miles around were shaken, every window in the town was broken, and the entire population thrown into a panic. The first idea was that an earthquake had occurred. Hundreds rushed from their homes in their night clothes, believing the houses about to collapse. The damage to the laboratory was fully $100,000.

Entire Family Asphyxiated.

Wilmington, Del., Feb. 11—William Ryan, his wife, and four-months-old child were found dead in bed this morning by the police. The family had retired at the usual time last night. This morning the neighbors noticed the blinds were still down and notified the police that they suspected something wrong. Upon entering the house they found the entire family dead, the mother clinging to the babe in her arms. The family had been asphyxiated by gas.

Emulating Caruso.

New York, Feb. 11.—For emulating Signor Errique Caruso, with variations, a man giving his name as Ardoche Deshanian, a well dressed man, was sent to jail in default of a $10 fine assessed today in the Yorkville police court. Detective Gain, who arrested Caruso, was Deshanian's Nemesis too. He said he caught the Armenian annoying two girls, in the Central Park lion house.

Acquitted.

Greenwood, Miss., Feb. 11.—James N. Money, who ended a long feud with his neighbor, L. J. Henderson, near Cruger, by killing the latter several months ago, was acquitted on an accusation of murder today, the jury holding the shooting to have been justified. Money is a nephew of United States Senator Money and a cousin of Governor Vardaman, of Mississippi.

New York Stock Market.

New York, Feb. 11.—After the room-traders sold stocks at the opening it became apparent that the market had hardened and belief was expressed that any supply of stocks around current quotations would be taken without trouble. The slight early losses were recovered and net gains ranging from 1 to 2 points over Saturday's closing were made in many stocks before the end of the first hour. Sugar was the feature of the industrial group and advanced 1⅝.

Fifty-ninth Congress.

Washington, Feb. 11.

SENATE.

The reading of the journal was interrupted in the Senate today to permit the oath of office to be administered to William Alden Smith, of Michigan, elected to fill the unexpired term of the late R. A. Alger.

The new senator was warmly greeted later, when he was escorted to a seat on the back row on the democratic side of the chamber.

The Senate passed a bill permitting the Salt Lake City Council to construct a boulevard through the Fort-Douglas military reservation.

The Smoot case was brought up in the Senate today by Mr. Berry, who urged the adoption of the resolution reported by the committee on privileges and elections, holding that the Utah Senator was not entitled to his seat.

He disclaimed all personal, religious or political animus, and declared that his relations with Mr. Smoot had always been pleasant. He said he would have been satisfied to have merely cast his vote in favor of the resolution were it not for certain conditions in his state years ago.

Mr. Berry held that while the Utah Senator was not a polygamist he was associated with those who believed in that infamy.

Mr. Smoot was deeply interested in the remarks. He frequently smiled over the interpretation the Arkansas senator placed upon his testimony before the Senate committee.

HOUSE.

The Indian appropriation bill was sent to conference today by the House which named as its representatives Messrs. Sherman, Lacey, and Stephens.

February 24th was set aside as a memorial day to commemorate the life, character and work of the late Representative Wm. H. Flack.

Bills relating to the District of Columbia were then taken up in committee of the whole.

After heaping honors upon the President a few days ago in a speech on the floor, Champ Clark, democratic leader of Missouri, today joined the President in his campaign on race suicide. The House had been called upon to pass a bill requiring physicians in the District of Columbia to register the name of persons suffering from tuberculosis with the local health office. Clark thought this would be an awful thing for a boy or girl who should be cured as it might interfere with his or her marriage.

"And after all marriage is about the most important piece of business we are called upon to perform in this world."

The bill passed, however.

Representative Crumpacker, (Repu, Ind) alone today saved Washington society from disaster. He did it on the floor of the House.

The House committee on the District of Columbia brought in a bill for passage making it "unlawful for any person to throw, push, scatter or leave within the building line, vestibule or yard of any premise in the District of Columbia, any paper, hand bill, cards, circulars or advertifing matter."

"Why that would make it unlawful for a lady to leave a card when calling," said Mr. Crumpacker. "That such an admirable system that it ought not to be broken up."

The committee at once amended the bill so as to make it refer only to advertising matter.

The bill was then passed and Mr. Crumpacker was a hero.

The Late Mr. Rixey.

As stated in the Gazette of that day, the House of Representative adjourned immediately upon receiving notice of the death of Mr. Rixey on Saturday. Mrs. Jones, of Virginia, brought the death of Mr. Rixey to the official attention of the House by presenting resolutions expressive of the regret of the House, providing for a committee to attend the funeral and directing the sergeant-at-arms to take charge of the obsequies. In presenting the resolution Mr. Jones said:

"It is with inexpressive sadness and unfeigned grief that I announce the death of my late colleague, the Hon. John F. Rixey. At some future time I shall ask the House to set apart a day when members may have an opportunity to pay tribute to his personal virtues and public services."

The resolutions were adopted, and, in conformity with them, Speaker Cannon appointed the funeral committee.

Impressive funeral services were held for Representative John F. Rixey, at 3 o'clock yesterday afternoon at the home of Surgeon-General Rixey, on K street, Washington where the Congressman died Saturday morning.

Rev. Page Carter, pastor of the Episcopal Church at Brandy Station, came to Washington to conduct the services. The entire Virginia delegation was present, as were also many other members of the House of Representatives. The Eighth district of Virginia was represented by delegations from almost every county in the district. A delegation from Alexandria was delayed on account of a breakdown in the trolley service to Washington.

The entire casket was covered with beautiful flowers, and there were other floral tributes in the various rooms of the home. These were chiefly roses, lilies and lilies of the valley. The Virginia delegation in Congress sent a fine floral piece, as did President Roosevelt.

A card of sympathy, written by the President, himself, accompanied the flowers. Another wreath of great beauty, formed of victory palms, violets and white tulips was sent by the George Washington Birthday Association, of Alexandria, and there was another handsome piece from the Virginia Safe Deposit and Trust Company of Alexandria. Senator and Mrs. Taliaferro, Representative Slayden, Mr. Robert E. Lee, and many others expressed their tribute to the memory of the dead Congressman by sending flowers.

The interment was in the Rixey family lot, near Culpeper, at 1 o'clock today. The funeral party, including the pallbearers and the joint Congressional committee, assembled at the House at 9 o'clock this morning and left Washington for Culpeper at 10 o'clock on a special train with the remains of the Congressman and members of his immediate family.

The pallbearers were Representative John Lamb, of Richmond; Representative William A. Jones of the First District; Eppa Hunton, jr., of Richmond; Henry St. George Tucker, of Lexington; Col Robert E. Lee, of Fairfax; Albert Fletcher, of Warrenton; George Shackelford, of Orange; Hubert Snowden, of Alexandria; W. H. W. Moran, of Manassas; W. C. Marshall, of Warrenton; C. P. Janney, of Leesburg; J. B. T. Thornton, of Manassas; Judge D. H. Grimsley, of Culpeper, and Medical Director J. C. Wise, U. S. N.

Knights of Columbus.

At least 400 members of the Knights of Columbus, in delegations from Alexandria, Staunton, Lynchburg, Roanoke, Richmond, Norfolk, Portsmouth and Newport News, attended the institution yesterday of Petersburg Council, No. 694, the first branch of the order to be organized in Petersburg. State Deputy Supreme Knight D. J. Callahan, of Washington and Norfolk, and the district deputy supreme knight, Dr. E. A. Gorman, of Alexandria, were the ranking officers present. After attending high mass, conducted by Rev. Father J. T. O'Farrell, at St. Joseph's Catholic Church, the long line of knights, headed by State Deputy Callahan and District Deputy Gorman, marched to the Odd Fellows' Hall, where the first degree was conferred with ceremonies to which no spectator was admitted. Gounod's "St. Cecelia Mass" was sung at the morning services by a large choir from Richmond. After an early dinner the second degree was conferred, and the knights attended vespers, conducted by Rev. Father Magri, of Richmond, and heard the Gregorian music, rendered by a choir composed entirely of members of the order. The third degree was conferred after vespers. Dr. J. M. Burke is grand knight of the Petersburg council, with J. H. Bailey as deputy grand knight. Richmond sent a delegation of 200 members, headed by Grand Knight James S. Patterson.

Died From His Injuries.

Ralph Smith, a carpenter, forty-five years old, who, as was stated in the Gazette, fell down a flight of steps at his residence, 706 south Washington street, Saturday morning, died from his injuries at the Alexandria Hospital Saturday night. The cause of his death was cerebral hemorrhage, the result of a fractured skull. The unfortunate man is said to have fallen backward down the stairs, and was unconscious when he was found by his wife, who was attracted from the rear of the house by the noise made by his body in its descent. Besides his wife, Mr. Smith is survived by two children. The funeral services will be held at 7 o'clock this evening at the residence of Mrs. Pauline Jones, a relative of the deceased, at 817 Prince street, and theremains will be carried to Campbell county tomorrow.

Family Theater.

The bill for this week at the family theater will introduce many good acts, consisting of pleasing comedy, good singing and dancing, and the latest new subjects in motion pictures and illustrated songs. Lowest possible prices will prevail and a good, interesting show is promised those who attend.

Congressional Candidates.

The Richmond Times-Dispatch has the following to say of the congressional candidates in this district.

Mr. Ryan was for years Speaker of the Virginia House of Delegates. He has been more successful than the average Virginia public man in avoiding espousing the side of either of the two wings of the democratic party in Virginia, and would draw strength from both as represented in the district.

He is thoroughly familiar with legislative procedure and with the duties of a Representative, besides being a man of character and prominence in the district. He would carry Loudoun by a large majority, it is claimed, and would probably carry Fauquier, unless that county should have a candidate.

Colonel Shackelford, who is a member of the State Senate in addition to being a lawyer of reputation and ability, is an exceedingly shrewd politician, as demonstrated by the manner in which he has built up the party in Orange. He has a wide acquaintance throughout the district, which is a valuable asset.

Judge Nicol is one of the ablest circuit judges in the State, and he, too, has a wide acquaintance in all the counties composing the Eighth. He has back of him some excellent workers, who know how to put up an effective fight. His candidacy is regarded as a certainty, as he is understood to have said long ago that he should aspire to Congress next time.

C. C. Carlin is one of the most prominent members of the bar of Alexandria; he is regarded as a lawyer of much ability, whose reputation is growing all the time. A friend said today he doubted the wisdom of Mr. Carlin making the race, just at a time when the future held so much of promise in a material way.

He will command a heavy vote through the district, it is believed.

Close friends of Colonel Lee say he has long entertained a desire to step from the State to the national legislature. He has represented Fairfax in the Virginia House of Delegates for several years, but recently announced that he would not stand for re-election. It is believed he will make a strong race for the nomination, with good chances of winning first prize. There is said to be no doubt of the fact that Colonel Lee will be a candidate.

His father, General "Rooney" Lee, represented the district in Congress.

There are still other names mentioned in connection with the nomination. Judge White, of Fauquier, is one; another is Hon. John Barbour, of Culpeper, one of the ablest lawyers in the district, and brother-in-law of the late Representative, and Hon. R. Walton Moore, of Fairfax, may be a candidate, although he has declined all suggestions that he enter the race.

Colonel James C. Hooe, of Loudoun, has been spoken of as a candidate, and he, to, may make the fight.

Colonel R. N. Harper, of Loudoun, a close friend of Mr. Rixey, has been mentioned in connection with the nomination. He is a very busy man as president of the American National Bank. He said today he did not expect to enter the contest.

There will be no lack of entries. The card will be full long before Governor Swanson orders a special election to fill the vacancy created by the death of Mr. Rixey.

Masonic.

The one hundred and twenty-ninth annual session of the grand lodge of Ancient Free and Accepted Masons of Virginia will be called to order in the Masonic Temple, Richmond, Tuesday evening at 7:30 o'clock. The session will be attended by the officers and a number of members of the two Alexandria lodges. The present officers of the grand lodge are: Grand master, Most Worshipful Kosciusko Kemper, of Alexandria; deputy grand master, Right Worshipful S. J. Quinn, of Fredericksburg; grand senior warden, Right Worshipful Joseph W. Eggleston, of Richmond; grand treasurer, Right Worshipful Fred Pleasants, of Richmond; grand secretary, Right Worshipful G. W. Carrington, of Richmond; grand senior deacon, Right Worshipful William B. McChesney, of Staunton; grand junior deacon, Right Worshipful W. L. Andrews, of Roanoke. It is understood that Grand Master Kemper will not serve another term.

Men's League Organized.

As announced in Saturday's Gazette, the Men's League was organized at the Baptist Church yesterday afternoon under very favorable auspices. There was a large attendance present. The meeting was opened by Dr. Fisher, the pastor, and after devotional exercises the following officers were elected. President, James R. Mansfield; vice president, W. P. Kerrick; secretary, Floyd G. Saunders; treasurer, James A. Hulfish; chairman of music committee, J. T. Preston. The league decided to meet for the present on the 2nd and 4th Monday evenings of each month. Rev. Dr. Fisher, E. C. Joyce, and J. T. Preston were named as a committee to draft a constitution and by-laws. The leaguers are entering upon the work with enthusiasm, and hope shortly to have the membership increased by all male members of the church and congregation.

Police Court.

[Justice H. B. Caton presiding.]

The following cases were disposed of this morning:

W. N. Crittenden, arrested by Officer Beach for being drunk on the street, was fined $2.50

Harrie Sayers, arrested by Officers Arrington and Henderson charged with disorderly conduct and trespass, was fined $10.

A white man, arrested by Lieutenant Bettis and Officer Garvey charged with drunken and disorderly conduct, was fined $5.

Stricken by Apoplexy.

The many friends and acquaintances of Alderman N. P. T. Burke will regret to learn that he was stricken by apoplexy about twelve o'clock last night, and it is feared that his condition is serious.

Funerals.

The funeral of Mrs. Adolphine Schwab took place from the residence on north Royal street yesterday afternoon, and was attended by relatives and friends of the family. The services were conducted by Rev. P. P. Phillips, and the pallbearers were Messrs. Thomas W. Robinson, James McWilliams, Magnus Schuler, Charles Bell, Robert Murphy, and Frank Warfield. The interment was in St. Paul's Cemetery.

The remains of Goldsborough E. McKnew, whose death occurred in Washington Saturday, were brought here today and interred in the Presbyterian Cemetery.

Funeral services over the remains of of Frederick Gregory, whose death occurred Friday at his home in Washington, took place yesterday afternoon at 5 o'clock at the undertaking rooms of B. Wheatley, on King street. Mr. Greogory was a former resident of this city.

The remains of Mrs. Margaret Steuart, who died in Washington yesterday, were brought here today and interred.

Fire Alarms.

The alarm of fire about 8:30 o'clock last night was caused by a fire in the office of the Robert Portner Brewing Company, on north St. Asaph street. The origin of the fire is a mystery. The room in which the fire originated was considerably damaged. Between 4 and 5 o'clock this morning a fire broke out in the same place, but it was soon subdued by the firemen who repaired to the scene. One of the front wheels of the new Columbia engine broke while on the way to the last fire, but the wardens having duplicate wheels soon placed another on the axle, and the engine did not go out of service.

The alarm of fire between 9 and 10 o'clock this morning was caused by a burning chimney on south Fairfax street.

The River.

The mild weather of yesterday caused the ice in the river to move during the morning and the northwest wind which prevailed yesterday afternoon and last night blew much of it toward the Maryland shore. Floes, however, formed in narrow places in the channel, which caused trouble to the few steamers and tugboats which moved up and down the river. The Norfolk steamer Washington arrived up about on time this morning. The ferry steamer Callahan continues to make hourly trips between this city and Washington, but the steamers which usually ply between Washington, this city and the lower river are tied up, as are also the Baltimore steamers.

Reception to Pastor.

Tonight at 8 o'clock in the lecture room of the Second Presbyterian Church, a public reception will be given by the officers of the church to the new pastor, Rev. Joseph R. Sevier, and Mrs. Sevier. A very interesting programme of music will be rendered, and addresses of welcome will be made by Mr. A. G. Uhler, on behalf of the session; Mr. R. W. Arnold, of the diaconate; Mr. P. J. Dempsey, of the congregation, and Rev. J. H. S. Ewell, President of the Minister's Association, on behalf of the ministers of the city. The arrangements are in the hands of a committee appointed from the session and diaconate of the church.

Meeting.

At the annual meeting of the stockholders of the Emerson Steam Pump Company, held at the office of the company in this city on the 4th instant, the following were elected directors for the ensuing year: C. E. Wood, O. G. Staples, W. R. Emerson, Samuel H. Lunt, Thomas H. McKee, Henry C. Browning and R. Bruce Emerson. The newly elected directors held their annual meeting today at the office of the company, and elected the following officers: for the ensuing year: C. E. Wood, president; W. R. Emerson, vice presidents Samuel H. Lunt, treasurer, and R. Bruce Emerson, secretary.

The Weather.

The weather yesterday morning was mild and much of the ice and snow which had been on the streets and sidewalks during the past few days melted, rendering walking disagreeable. At the intersections of some streets the water rose to the curbstones. In the afternoon the wind changed to the northwest and the weather became fair and colder. The wind blew heavily during most of the night and the mercury in the thermometer at 7 o'clock this morning stood at 30°. Early in the afternoon the wind blew heavily, accompanied by spits of snow.

Death of a Physician.

Dr. James Samuel Gunnell, a retired physician of Washington, died Saturday, while visiting his sister, Mrs. Virginia Scott, at her home, Bush Hill, Fairfax county, near this city. Dr. Gunnell was seventy-seven years old, and was a native of Washington, where he practiced his profession for many years. He was unmarried, but is survived by two sisters, Mrs. Scott, of Bush Hill, and Mrs. Pelham Williams, of Cambridge, Mass., and two brothers, Dr. F. M. Gunnell, U. S. N., and W. C. Gunnell, of Bush Hill.

The Alaska Packers Association, who can the Argo Red Salmon, has the largest fleet in number of any shipping firm sailing under the American flag. It owns 55 steamers and 15 sailing vessels and charters many more. That is why Argo can be sold at 15 cents per can.

Fall of Wire.

The breaking of the overhead wire of the electric railway at the intersection of King and Columbus streets, yesterday afternoon, caused a delay in the running of trains for about two hours. This species of accident in becoming a common occurrence, as was the case over a year ago. New wires were subsequently stretched and it was supposed that they were properly supported. The company should proceed at once to eliminate this source of danger to pedestrians.

FOR RENT OR LEASE.—A FINE LOT on the south side of Princess street, between Fairfax and Lee streets, having a frontage on Princess street of 38 feet to a depth of 106 feet, with the right to use Southern Railway track running through the property. Excellent location for an up-to-date wood and coal yard. For terms apply to JOHN D. NORMOYLE, N. E. corner of King and Royal streets. feb8 3t one of the contestants in the six days walking match at Madison Square Garden, New York.—This is a woman ironing—that is, she is ironing when she is not running to and from the stove changing irons—but most of her time is spent doing the latter.

Electric Flat Irons eliminate the "walking match."—They heat quickly, and stay hot, and maintain an even temperature all the time—no fire to keep going when the iron is not in use.

MAKING OLD OAK.

One of the Tricks of the Cabinetmakers' Trade.

You will have to go a long way before you find a body of men more clever than those cabinetmakers who produce goods to satisfy the desire of the public for furniture made of old and fancy woods. They can transform whitewood into all kinds of exotic woods by means of chemicals, and a chemist would be surprised if he were to have the run of one of those factories for a day.

The manufacture of "old" oak is one of the easiest of their processes. The boards, moldings, panels or whatever pieces are required are made of oak which has just had time to dry sufficiently to prevent excessive warping.

They are then placed in a dark room, on the floor of which and quite close to the furniture to be "aged," are placed several bowls, plates and so forth, of liquid ammonia. The room is then hermetically closed up, and the wood is left for a month or so, according to the age which is required. The coloration will extend to a depth of nearly a quarter of an inch if the room is kept closed for a few months.

That is why there is so much old oak furniture about. Of course, a little reflection would show that it could not be genuine—the forests of the middle ages would not have furnished one-half of it—but people do not always reflect. —London Graphic.

Shoe Buckles.

When Evander Berry Wall, king of the dudes for twelve years and really the most inconspicuous man about town, because he was homely of face and a very bad dresser, besides being rather short and blotchy, undertook to reintroduce shoe buckles he made his first big failure as the sartorial dictator of our "jeunesse doree." I think it was poor Al Claggett who said: "Why, Berry, you make a fool of yourself. Shoe buckles go with long stockings and knee pants. You can't wear 'em with socks and trousers. They interfere with the set of the trousers around the feet. Then, of course, you've got to have a low quartered shoe. Cut it out, Berry, cut it out." Wall immediately quit.—New York Press.

Wearing Glasses.

Wearing glasses need not be permanent. If the first hint of derangement in the eyes is heeded a short time spent under the direction of an oculist will safely tide over the difficulty. It is most restful to close the eyes frequently for a few minutes. This rest does them great good. Particularly should this be done in trains and street cars. Many a headache and smarting pain may thus be saved. Traveling in public conveyances is exceedingly hard on the eyes, even for those that are strong and perfect. The gaze should be confined to the interior of the car. Looking out of the windows to the rapidly changing scenery is a great strain.—Philadelphia Ledger.

No Regrets.

"Hello, old man. Haven't seen anything of you since you got married. How goes it?"

"Thanks, fairly well. But marriage is a costly job! If you only knew what the dressmakers charge!"

"So I suppose you regret it?"

"Oh, no. I married a dressmaker."—Meggendorfer Blatter.

In After Years.

Smith—When Green was courting that young widow a couple of years ago he declared he couldn't live without her. Jones—And did he marry her? Smith—Yes. And now he is trying to get a divorce on the grounds that it's impossible to live with her.—Exchange.

It's a pleasure to tell our readers about a Cough Cure like Dr. Shoop's. For years Dr. Shoop has fought against the use of Opium, Chloroform, or other unsafe ingredients commonly found in Cough remedies. Dr. Shoop, it seems, has welcomed the Pure Food and Drug Law recently enacted, for he has worked along similar lines many years. For nearly 20 years Dr. Shoop's Cough Cure contains have had a warning printed on them against Opium and narcotic poisons. He has thus made it possible for mothers to protect their children by simply insisting on having Dr. Shoop's Cough Cure. Sold by E. S. Leadbeater & Sons, druggists.

All headaches go
When you grow wiser
And learn to use
An "Early Riser."
DeWitt's Little Early Risers, safe, sure pills.

Only a little cold in the head may be the beginning of an obstinate case of Nasal Catarrh. Drive out the invader with Ely's Cream Balm applied straight to the inflamed stuffed air-passage. Price 50c. If you prefer to use an atomizer, ask for Liquid Cream Balm. It has all the good qualities of the remedy in solid form and will rid you of catarrh or hay fever. No cocaine to breed a dreadful habit. No mercury to dry out the secretion. Price 75c, with spraying tube. All druggists, or mailed by Ely Bros., 56 Warren Street, New York.

The Limit of Life.

The most eminent medical scientists are unanimous in the conclusion that the generally accepted limitation of human life is many years below the attainment possible with the advanced knowledge of which the race is now possessed. The critical period that determines its duration, seems to be between 50 and 60; the proper care of the body during this decade cannot be too strongly urged; carelessness then being fatal to longevity. Nature's best helper after 50 is Electric Bitters, the scientific tonic medicine that revitalizes every organ of the body. Guaranteed by E. S. Leadbeater, & Sons, druggists.

Croup can positively be stopped in 20 minutes. No vomiting—nothing to sicken or distress your child. A sweet, pleasant, and safe Syrup, called Dr. Shoop's Croup Cure, does the work and does it quickly. Dr. Shoop's Croup Cure for Croup alone, remember. It does not claim to cure a dozen ailments. It's for Croup, that's all. Sold by E. S. Leadbeater & Sons, druggists.

FOR OVER SIXTY YEARS.

AN OLD AND WELL-TRIED REMEDY.—Mrs. Winslow's Soothing Syrup has been used for over sixty years by millions of mothers for their children while teething with perfect success. It soothes the child, softens the gums, allays all pain, cures wind colic and is the best remedy for Diarrhœa. Is pleasant to the taste. Sold by druggists in every part of the world. Twenty-five cents a bottle. Its value is incalculable. Be sure and ask for Mrs. Winslow's Soothing Syrup and take no other kind.

Guaranteed under the food and drugs act, June 30th, 1906. Serial number 1098.

LEGAL NOTICES.

VIRGINIA.—In the Clerk's Office of the Corporation Court of the City of Alexandria, on the 29th day of January, 1907.

City Council of Alexandria, which uses for itself and for such other lien creditors as may come into, take part in, and share the expenses of this suit, vs. Hugh Walters and Edward Gorman. In Chancery.

Memo: The object of this suit is to subject the following property in the city of Alexandria, Va., viz: Lot No. 15, Lot No. 16, Lot No. 17 and Lot No. 18 in T. F. Barrett square, bounded by Alfred street on the east; Patrick street on the west; Montgomery street on the south and Manderville's line on the north, of Norton and Barley's subdivision, according to plat and survey recorded in deed book 31, page 118, Clerk's Office of the Corporation Court of the city of Alexandria, being the same lots conveyed to said Hugh Walters and Edward Gorman by Thomas F. Barrett and wife by deed bearing date January 31, 1894, and recorded April 14, 1894, in deed book No 31, page 582, Clerk's office of the Corporation Court of the city of Alexandria, to the payment of the lien of the City Council of Alexandria, thereon for taxes, and all other liens.

It appearing by an affidavit filed in this cause that the defendants, Hugh Walters and Edward Gorman are non-residents of this State: It is Ordered, That said defendants appear here within fifteen days after due publication of this order and do what is necessary to protect their interests in this suit, and that a copy of this order be forthwith inserted in the Alexandria Gazette, a newspaper published in the City of Alexandria, once a week for four successive weeks, and posted at the front door of the Court House of this city.
